RELOCATIONS, THEY CAN'T BE IMPROVISED. IT'S A PROFESSION.

“ We had found a cheap mover. They had loaded everything in their truck, a little bit fast and without a lot of precautions. However, he never reached the destination... The complete loading, our furniture and all our goods ... lost.”

Unfortunately, this is one of too many testimonies that we receive at our professional federation. Relocations are a real know-how, executed by professionals. It is the reason why you should always call upon the Official Movers of the Belgian Chamber of Movers. Like this, you avoid all potential inconveniences and put your relocation in good hands.

WHY CHOOSE AN OFFICIAL MOVER?

Here are the 10 reasons why you should call upon an accredited mover:

- 1 He works with a contract and clear tariffs, while respecting the conditions dictated by the BCM.
- 2 He assures the correct progress of the tasks for which he is responsible, from A to Z.
- 3 He informs his clients in advance of potential risks and offers insurance solutions related to those risks.
- 4 He only uses collaborators who are competent, trustworthy and specifically trained for the execution of their contracts.

- 5 He uses the lifts, trucks, and other moving apparatus to the norms within the framework of their activities while respecting the security disposition in place.
- 6 His provisions of relocations are the most environmentally friendly possible.
- 7 He moves, as a « careful and diligent owner » the furniture and goods that were trusted to him only using safe and reliable specific means of storage.
- 8 His invoicing is transparent and can be checked.
- 9 His commercial practices are legal and respect the taxes and the legal dispositions in terms of social laws.
- 10 Finally, he's recognisable by his use of the logo « Official Mover ».

Belgian Chamber of Movers (BCM) ensures the strict respect of these elements.

IT HAPPENED TO OTHERS:

We agreed with friends a date for the relocation. We moved a chest of drawers in oak from the second floor. Later, everything got complicated. Marc slipped and fell down the stairs. His pelvic got fractured and he went through a long revalidation. And as he didn't have a hospitalisation insurance or one covering the accidents, it only got worse. We felt so guilty that we contributed in large parts to the payment of his hospitalisation. Not to mention the fact that we felt like we made our longtime friend go through something terrible...

- Patricia, 32 years from Aalst

After my father passed away, we had to empty the family house. My brothers and sisters came together on Saturday. I inherited an authentic painting of a recognised master of great value. I still see it: my brother Philippe tries to retrieve the painting with his son, but the painting slips from their hands. Although it was wrapped in blankets, the painting went through the window and ended up on the fence, completely shredded. The restoration wasn't possible and we weren't insured. I know perfectly well that it was an accident, but since then the relationship with my brother isn't the same as before.
